

Association of Professional Genealogists
Young Professional Scholarship Application

The Association of Professional Genealogists awards to a young, aspiring person, a scholarship to its Professional Management Conference (PMC). The scholarship includes PMC registration and a $1000 stipend to cover travel, rooming and other conference expenses.

Instructions: All applications (this form and all attachments) should be transmitted electronically to the APG office (admin@apgen.org) no later than midnight of the announced deadline date.

Name

Date of Birth (must be 18-29 as of 1 January)

Address

City

State

Zip Code

Contact Number (can be cell or land line)

Email

School at which applicant is enrolled or from which he/she graduated and School Address (if applicable)

On a separate page, list extra curricula activities, participating organizations, and volunteer activities, including any offices or leadership roles held in these groups. Attach continuation pages if necessary.

On a separate page, in 500-750 words, Discuss a specific record collection, media, digital source or other resource that has significantly changed your perspective about family history or research strategy along with the pros and cons of that record source, and how you used it to resolve a genealogical problem.

On a separate page, answer the following question: What do you envision a genealogical career will encompass in the next five years and how do you see yourself involved then?

You may attach a general letter of recommendation.

You may attach a letter of recommendation from an individual who has witnessed your interest in genealogy.

Return application package electronically to:
admin@apgen.org
with subject line: [Your Surname] PMC Scholarship Application